02/27/2008	27	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Laura Taylor Swain from Daniel Engelstein dated 2/26/2008 re: We represent the Defendant Union in the above matter. We are writing, with the consent of Plaintiffs' counsel, to adjourn the pre-trial conference scheduled for March 7, 2008 and to suspend the attendant disclosure and other pre-obligations pending disposition of the Union's pending motion to dismiss, Plaintiffs' anticipated motion to amend their Complaint, and the formal appearance of the other defendant, which I understand was served sometime in January, 2008. Subject to the Court's approval, we have agreed to the following schedule with respect to put motion to dismiss and Plaintiffs' motion to amend the complaint and compliance with the pre-motion conference consultation requirements Defendant Union has volunteered to provide Plaintiffs' counsel with information submitted to the EEOC. By Wednesday

		March 5, 2008, Plaintiffs will provide us with a proposed amended complaint; On Monday, March 10, 2008, we will inform Plaintiffs' counsel as to whether we will consent to the filing of the amended complaint; If we do not consent the amendment because it is not materially different from the initial complaint, we will file our reply papers on the pending motion to dismiss on or before March 14, 2008 and oppose the motion to amend on the grounds that the amended complaint is also insufficient; and, If the amended complaint is sufficiently materially different that the court would likely grant the motion to amend, we will consent to the amendment and enter into a stipulation that will provide for additional time in which Defendant Union may answer or renew its motion to dismiss. ENDORSEMENT: The proposed schedule is approved. SO ORDERED., (Replies due by 3/14/2008.) (Signed by Judge Laura Taylor Swain on 2/27/2008) (jmi) (Entered: 02/27/2008)
